Dear Harold,

I received both of your letters last week and passed them immediately on to Ron -- it was because of that that I waited 'til now to answer. He has directed me to send two of your published books to our London counterpart, with pertinent information re sales and lack of houses here in the States.

Ron also informed me that he wants to give the book his personal attention and that he'll do immediately upon returning in August.

I checked the information on page 56...

Continue to keep in touch--let me know if I can aid you in the least.

Sincerely,

Billie
